BIOGRAPHICAL SUMMARY OF NOMINEE

(About a hundred words outlining career, and what I will bring to the Society)

Ian McInnes is a retired architect who specialised in working on existing buildings. He has an AA Masters in Conservation - his thesis was on post-war office buildings in London's West End, and he contributed a chapter to the most recent C20 Journal 'Buildings for Business'. He has been a Twentieth Century Society member for nearly 20 years and has considerable experience as a C20 Society Trustee having served as Hon. Events Secretary, Treasurer and, between 2012-17, as Chair of the Casework Committee. He has organised and led a large number of Society visits and events including, most recently, the Remembering Gavin Stamp day. He is currently chair of his local amenity society, the Dulwich Society and, until the end of March, he was also chair of the Friends of Dulwich Picture Gallery overseeing its recent merger with its parent organisation.
