BIOGRAPHICAL SUMMARY OF NOMINEE

(About a hundred words outlining career, and what I will bring to the Society)

Colin is a marketing consultant with over 30 years of experience. He was Chief Strategy Officer for Ogilvy, a major international ad agency, for many years and led global marketing (reporting to the CEO) for McDonald's. He grew up in Scotland, has lived in the US and currently splits his time between Chicago and London. Colin's father was a Town Planner and instilled a love of architecture and preservation. Colin is active in DoCoMo US and has toured and read widely to study the modern movement. He brings business, branding and American non-profit experience as well as passion for protection to C20.
