BIOGRAPHICAL SUMMARY OF NOMINEE

(About a hundred words outlining career, and what I will bring to the Society)

As a Trustee at the C20 Society, I would bring extensive experience and a passion for preserving 20th-century architecture. With expertise in architectural history and theory, I understand the challenges facing historic buildings. My track record includes winning the British School at Rome's Giles Worsley Fellowship, being named a RIBA Journal Rising Star and serving a two-year tenure as a 'Young Trustee' at the Architecture Foundation – a testament to my advocacy and activism. I also possess strong communication skills and a collaborative approach. Committed to advancing the C20 Society's mission, I aim to contribute to its success in safeguarding our architectural heritage.
